Movie Discussion Questions

Kick off your meeting by playing the Secrets of the World Class movie. Before viewing the movie, ask thought provoking, open-ended questions to get attendees thinking and participating right from the beginning.

- First, have team members individually write down 3-4 characteristics of a champion (i.e. What does a champion behave like?).
- Have team members individually write down 2-3 "characteristics" of becoming a champion.
- Capture all inputs on a flipchart and discuss. There will likely be many.
- View the movie (length 3m:09s).

After viewing the movie, it is important to differentiate world class vs. good enough. List characteristics of a World Class Champion.

- How do these compare to the characteristics we listed before the film?

Book Discussion Questions

Provide copies of Secrets of the World Class to each meeting participant to serve as both a learning tool and a future resource to reinforce training ideas. Giving the book to participants prior to the meeting will allow people to read the material and come prepared for discussion. Books given at the beginning of the meeting allow for an interactive study of the material. **Printable worksheet provided for meeting participants.*

Champions take Risks

Decide today to take a small risk on something you've been thinking about doing.

If this process is new to you, rest assured, you will feel less fear with every risk you take.

The Great Ones are Learning Machines

Make a commitment to develop your own self-education program.

Read, listen, and attend seminars and workshops.

Set a goal to read a certain number of books and listen to a set number of audios each month.

The Great Ones Use Mentors

Make a list of the five most successful people you know and make a commitment to use the "Copy Genius Philosophy" with them.
